My dear Miss R
I have just received your letter of the 10th and am very glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am very truly yours

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and a small dark stain near the top center. There is also a faint smudge near the bottom left corner. The page is otherwise empty of any text or markings.

Main body of handwritten text, appearing to be a list or ledger with multiple columns and entries. The text is highly cursive and difficult to decipher.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and faint, illegible markings scattered across its surface. A large, dark, irregular stain is visible in the center of the page, possibly from water damage or a binding artifact. The overall tone is warm and vintage.

My dear Mr. [illegible]
I have just received your letter of the 11th inst. and am glad to hear that you are well. I am also well and hope this finds you the same. I have been thinking of writing you for some time but have been so busy that I could not find time. I am now at home and have some time to spare. I hope to hear from you again soon. I am very truly yours,
